Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Tuesday 07 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Warm or very warm on Tuesday with sunny spells.

Today:
Mainly cloudy with some drizzle across the Northwest Highlands and the Islands. Brighter elsewhere, with some longer spells of sunshine in the south and east. Warm or very warm for most.

Tonight:
Mainly dry with some clear periods, though low cloud mist and patchy drizzle will affect the Hebrides and the Northern Isles.

Wednesday:
A mostly fine dry day with long spells of sunshine for most, and becoming very warm. Patchy mist around eastern coasts, while the Hebrides will turn cloudier, patchy rain possible.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Rain or showers on Thursday, heavy at times with chance of thunder. Friday mainly cloudy with occasional rain or showers then brightening up during Saturday. Becoming cooler.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.